Details: As recipients are aware, the St. Louis Division has confirmed that Pope John Paul II will be visiting St. Louis, MO in late January, 1999. The Pope's itinerary is incomplete as of the current date and will not be confirmed until after the visit of the Papal Advance Team during the first week of September, 1998. Speculation has the Pope visiting the St. Louis area one or possibly two days, and possibly celebrating Mass at the Trans World Dome with the Mass simultaneously televised at Busch Stadium and the Kiel Center. At the present time, St. Louis is unable to estimate the numbers of people who will be in attendance at this event. However, due to the fact that the Pope's visits to the United States are infrequent and sporadic, St. Louis believes throngs of people across the United States will travel to the St. Louis area to take part in this event.

Dear Mr. Dowd:

The purpose of this letter is to advise you of our commitment to addressing Domestic Terrorism Crimes as they relate to Weapons of Mass Destruction (WMD) and the use of Nuclear, Biological, Chemical and Mechanical (Explosive) Devices. Several Agents in my office have received intensive training in the area of Hazardous Devices (Special Agent Bomb Technician), WMD and Domestic Terrorism.

These Agents have assisted in major Domestic Terrorism investigations to include Unabomber, the Oklahoma City bombing, the 1996 Atlanta Olympic Park bombing, midwest bank robberies and several local incidents involving destruction devices. These serious and deadly incidents have forced all levels of law enforcement to prepare and train personnel in prevention, protection and prosecution of those involved with the illegal use of destructive devices to include those of a nuclear, chemical and biological nature.

In addition, several events will occur in St. Louis in the next few years to include visits by national and international figures. As an example, Pope John Paul II is scheduled to travel to St. Louis in January 1999 and St. Louis will host the National Governors Conference in the Summer of 1999. Visits from international figures such as the Pope often draw large masses of people from all over the world. Unfortunately, this is the most favorable atmosphere for terrorists who obtain publicity by their vicious criminal acts.

Letter to USA Dowd, from SAC Thompson
July 9, 1998

We, as federal investigators, are joining forces with all levels of law enforcement to prepare, train, prevent and prosecute those who commit these violent acts to further their terrorist campaigns.

As part of our training in this endeavor, we have been given certain prosecutorial tools by Congress to be used in the prosecution of WMD-type crimes. Specifically, Title 18, United States Code (USC), Section 921, Firearms, "Use of Destructive Device"; Section 2332(a), "Use of Weapon of Mass Destruction"; and Section 178, "Biological Weapons of Anti-Terrorism Act".

We will be conducting meetings and training in the upcoming months and we would welcome your participation in some of these activities. We also look forward to your support in the prosecution of these crimes and the prevention of violent, domestic terrorism acts as they affect the Eastern District of Missouri.

Sincerely,

WILEY D. THOMPSON

Details: For the information of the Bureau, on July 29, 1998 the USSS held a meeting in St. Louis, Missouri regarding captioned event. In attendance were representatives from the St. Louis Archdiocese, representatives from Contemporary Productions Inc. (the multi-media company putting on the event), the St. Louis Chief of Police, the Lambert International Airport Police Captain, and local and national USSS personnel.

In the afternoon of 7/29/98, the St. Louis Division telephonically contacted the local USSS and made an inquiry of why the local FBI was not invited to this meeting. The local USSS advised that they wanted to invite the FBI to this meeting but was told by the national USSS that this meeting had nothing to do with "Crisis Management" and therefore there was not a need for the FBI to be in attendance. Furthermore, St. Louis was advised that the FBI will not be invited to any future meetings regarding the planning of this event by the USSS. The local USSS Special Agent in Charge (SAIC) has advised SAC St. Louis that he will advise SAC St. Louis of the results of some of the meetings

St. Louis has explained to local USSS that the FBI realizes that USSS has primary responsibility concerning the security of the Pope, as well as for the President, if he travels to St. Louis for this event. St. Louis has indicated to the local USSS that their attendance at these meetings would be for informational purposes or sharing of intelligence information and that they would not offer advice and/or suggestions to the planning. St. Louis emphasized to the USSS that the FBI has the primary responsibility for the protection of hundreds of thousands of citizens if there is a terrorist incident at this event.

As noted in instant communication, St. Louis has made an honest effort to work professionally side by side, with no added interference with the USSS concerning this event. USSS has declined the offer. FBIHQ can imagine the confusion this creates among state and local agencies with respect to the question "who is in charge of what?" St. Louis has labored to create and maintain strong liaison relationships with state and local officials under many program areas but none more emphatically than within the Counterterrorism context. Our lack of presence at these planning sessions creates enormous confusion with respect to our role in special events such as the Pope's visit or the National Governors Conference. Professional courtesy aside, St. Louis wonders what earthly reason could possibly justify excluding a major player like the FBI from these planning meetings.

Therefore, St. Louis will contact all outside entities participating in this event and advise them of the FBI's responsibilities concerning this event. St. Louis will maintain liaison with these entities and go forth with the Bureau's planning and participation concerning this event.

	First reader	Approaches ambo and reads the first reading from the Votive Mass of the Sacred Heart; #910.2, page 1085; Dt 7: 6-11.	A reading from the book of Deuteronomy Moses said to the people: "You are a people sacred to the Lord, your God; he has chosen you from all the nations on the face of the earth to be a people peculiarly his own. It was not because you are the largest of all nations that the Lord set his heart on you and chose you, for you are really the smallest of all nations. It was because the Lord loved you and because of his fidelity to the oath he had sworn to your fathers, that he brought you out with his strong hand from the place of slavery, and ransomed you from the hand of Pharaoh, king of Egypt. Understand, then, that the Lord, your God, is God indeed, the faithful God who keeps his merciful covenant down to the thousandth generation toward those who love him and keep his commandments, but who repays with destruction the person who hates him; he does not dally with such a one, but makes him personally pay for it. You shall therefore carefully observe the commandments, the statutes and the decrees which I enjoin on you today. The Word of the Lord.

	Second reader	Approaches and reads the second reading from from the Votive Mass of the Sacred Heart; #913.6, page 1090; 1 Jn 4: 7-16.	A reading from the first letter of John . . Beloved, let us love one another because love is of God; everyone who loves is begotten of God and has knowledge of God. The man without love has known nothing of God, for God is love. God's love was revealed in our midst in this way: he sent his only Son to the world that we might have life through him. Love, then, consists in this: not that we have loved God, but that he has loved us and has sent his Son as an offering for our sins. Beloved, if God has loved us so, we must have the same love for one another. No one has ever seen God. Yet if we love one another God dwells in us, and his love is brought to perfection in us. The way we know we remain in him

	cont.	cont.	God dwells in us, and his love is brought to perfection in us. The way we know we remain in him and he in us is that he has given us of his Spirit. We have seen for ourselves, and can testify, that the Father has sent the Son as savior of the world. When anyone acknowledges that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwells in him and he in God. We have come to know and to believe in the love God has for us. God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God and God in him. The Word of the Lord. (Thanks be to God.)

A reading from the holy gospel according to Luke (Glory to you, O Lord.) The tax collectors and sinners were all gathering around Jesus to hear him, at which the Pharisees murmured, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." Then he addressed this parable to them: "Who among you, if he has a hundred sheep and loses one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wasteland and follow the lost one until he finds it? And when he finds it, he puts it on his shoulders in jubilation. Once arrived home, he invites friends and neighbors in and says to them, 'Rejoice with me because I have found my lost sheep.' I tell you, there will likewise be more joy in heaven over one repentant sinner than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need to repent. "What woman, if she has ten silver pieces and loses one, does not light a lamp and sweep the house in a diligent search until she has retrieved what she lost? And when she finds it, she calls in her friends and neighbors to say, 'Rejoice with me! I have found the silver piece I lost.' I tell you, there will be

WHEN	WHO	ACTION	TEXT/DESCRIPTION
	All	Stand and pray the Creed.	We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, one in Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit, he was born of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered, died, and was buried. On the third day he rose again in fulfillment of the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church.

WHEN	WHO	ACTION	TEXT/DESCRIPTION
	Pope	Prays Eucharistic Prayer III	Father, you are holy indeed, and all creation rightly gives you thanks. All life, all holiness comes from you through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, by the working of the Holy Spirit. From age to age you gather a people to yourself, so that from east to west a perfect offering may be made to the glory of your name. And so, Father, we bring you these gifts. We ask you to make them holy by the power of your Spirit, that they may become the Body and Blood of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, at whose command we celebrate this eucharist. On the night he was betrayed, he took bread and gave you thanks and praise. He broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said: Take this, all of you, and eat it: This is my body which will be given up for you. When supper was ended, he took the cup. Again he gave you thanks and praise, gave the cup to his disciples, and said: Take this, all of you, and drink from it: This is the cup of my blood, the blood of the new and everlasting covenant. It will be shed for you and for all so that sins may be forgiven. Do this in memory of me. Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

Peter and Paul] My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God my savior, for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant. From this day all generations will call me blessed: the Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is his name. He has mercy on those who fear him in every generation. He has shown the strength of his arm, he has scattered the proud in their conceit. He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, and has lifted up the lowly. He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty. He has come to the help of his servant Israel for he has remembered his promise of mercy, the promise he made to our fathers, to Abraham and his children for ever. Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and will be for ever, Amen. Antiphon: Simon Peter said: Lord, to whom shall we go?
